Miss Elizabeth Horton,
Genealogist,
12 Grove Street,
Middletown, Conn.

Dear Miss Horton:

Your name has been given to me as one having knowledge of The History of Somanauk United Presbyterian Church, published in 1928 by Jennie M. Patten and Andrew Graham. It has also been said that the above-mentioned History has a List of Passengers brought from Scotland by Capt. Laughlin Campbell in 1738-40. I am also told that these deal with the early settlers of Argyle Town, Washington County, N.Y.

If the above is true, I am very much interested. And I have directed this letter to you, seeking information, as follows:

Do you know where I can obtain a copy of the above?

If not, do you have a copy?

If your answer is 'no' to the first question and 'yes' to the second, would you scan it, supplying me with information at your usual rates?

If your answer is 'yes', I am seeking information to the ancestry, etc., of Alexander and James Campbell, said to be sons of Duncan Campbell 'of ye family of Duntoon.' Both these men came to Canada during the Revolution, and Alexander settled in this vicinity, where some of his descendants still reside.

I also seek information regarding a James Randolph, who was residing in Argyle Town in 1790. I suspect that he was one of the settlers brought in by Campbell. Information regarding anyone by this surname in this book would be appreciated.

I am enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope for your reply.

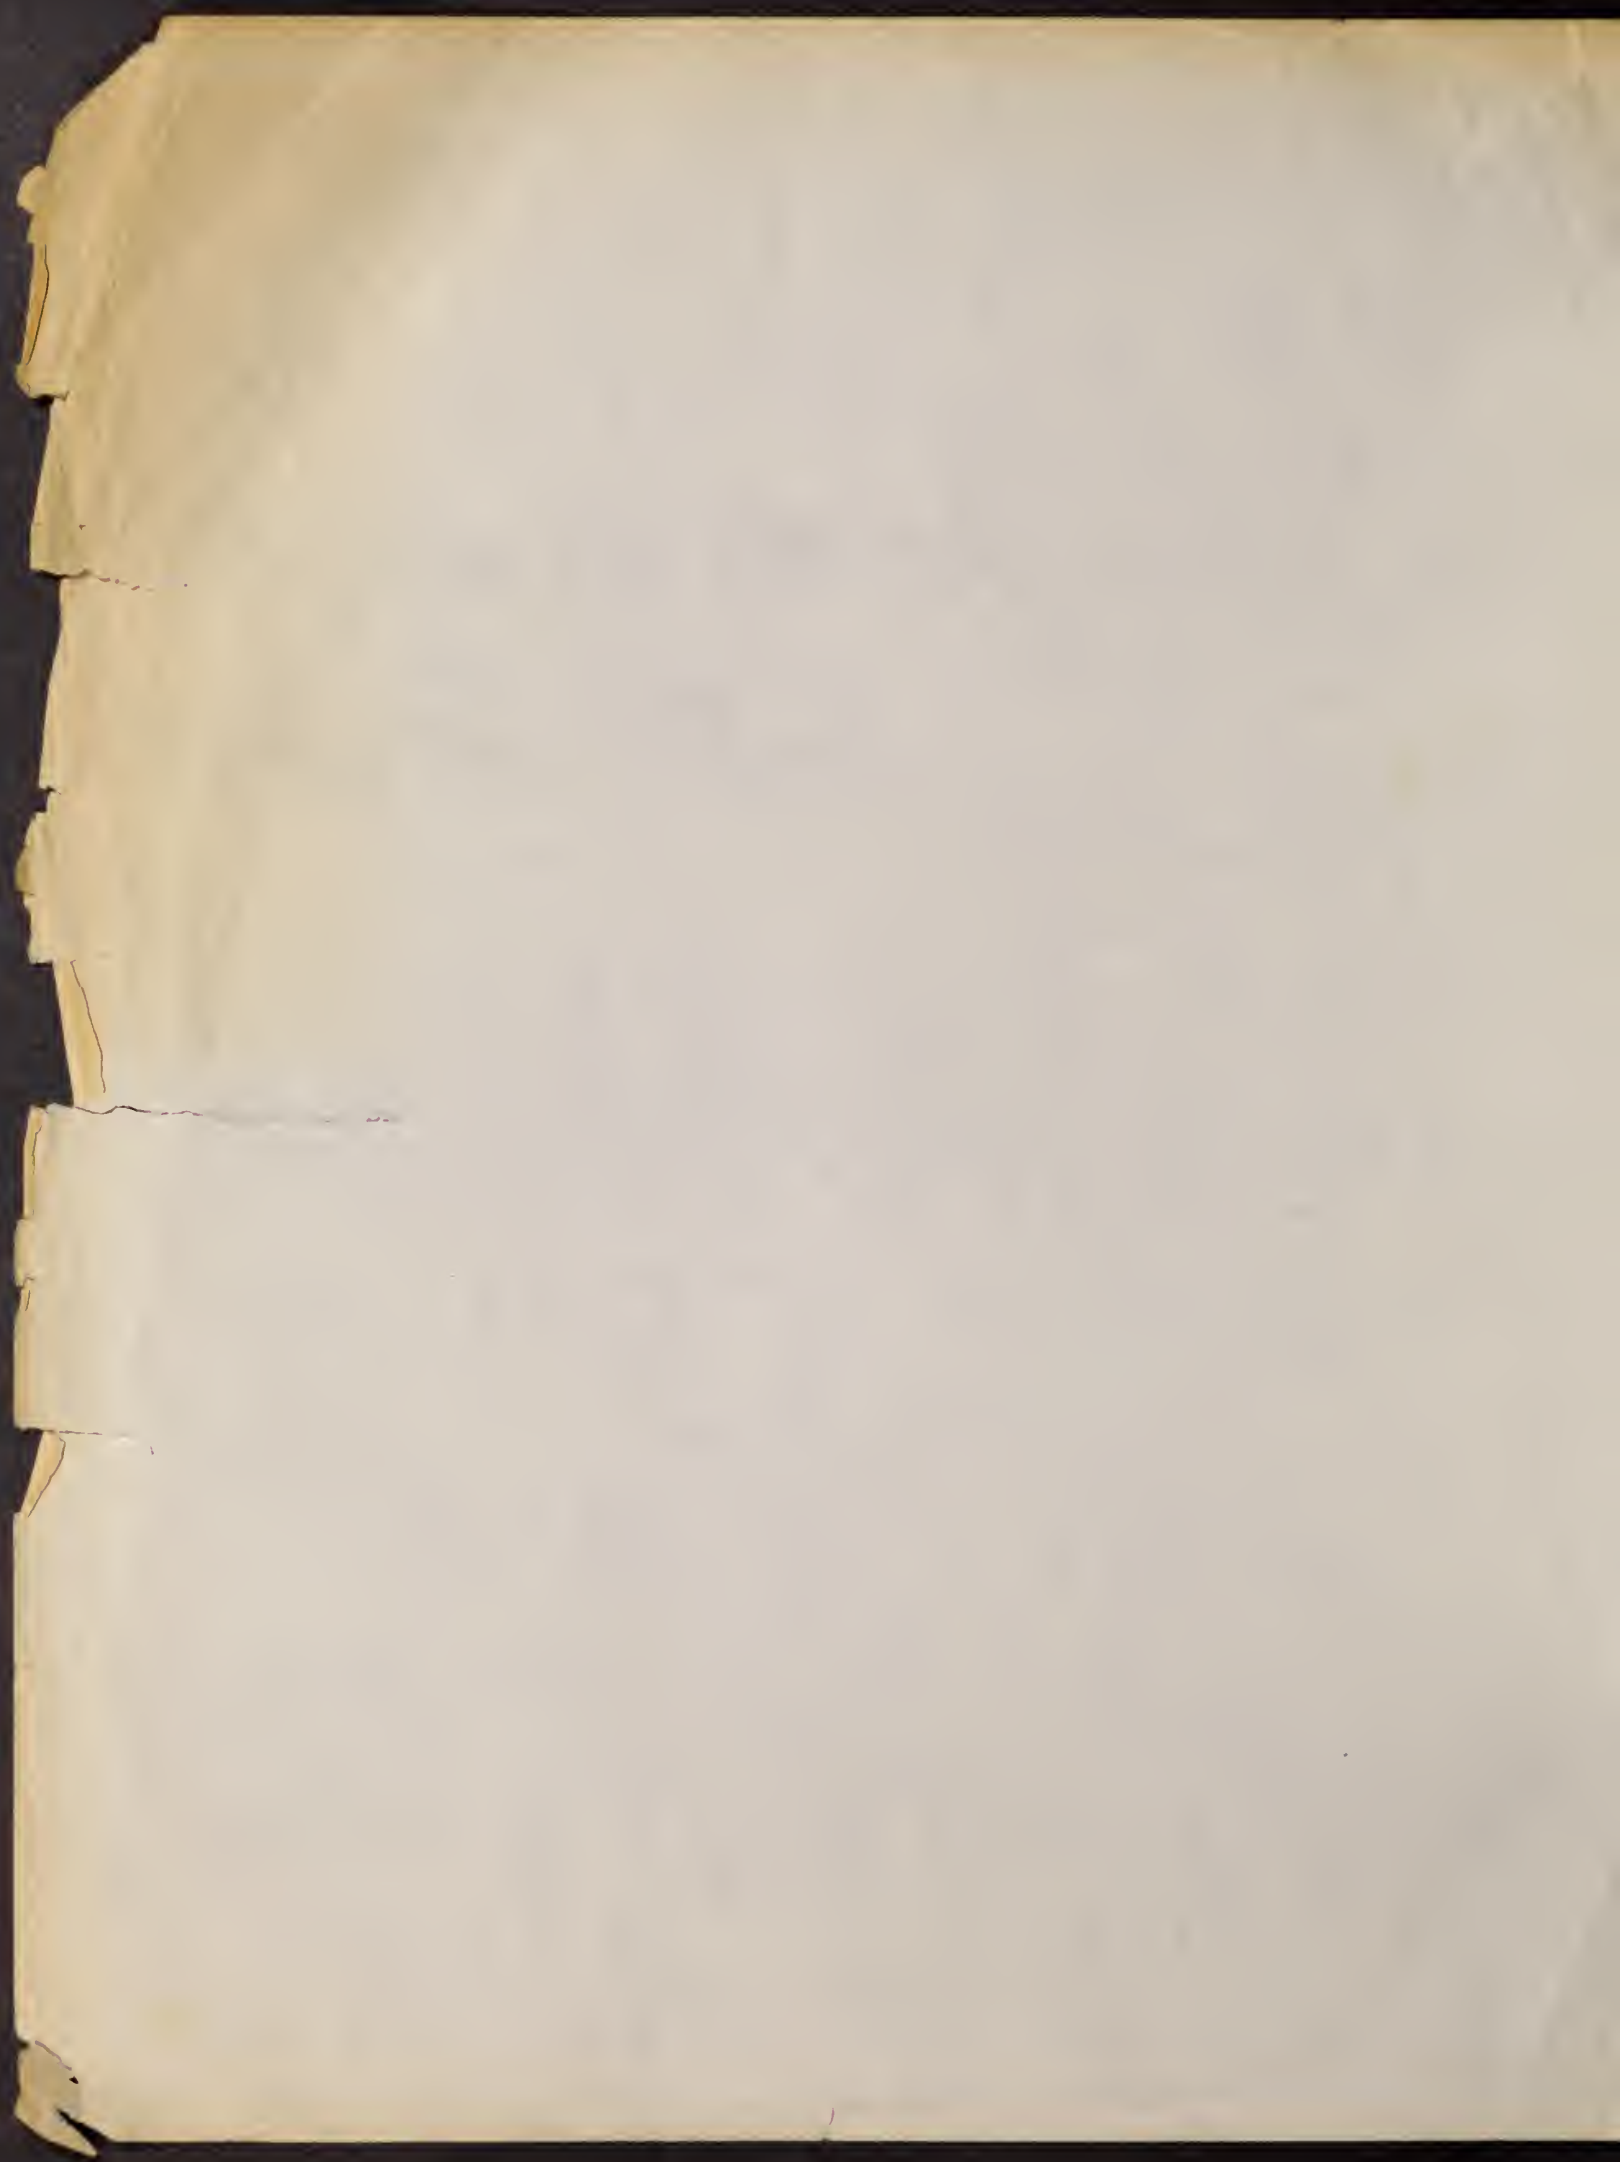

Thanking you in advance,

I remain

Yours sincerely,

H. B. Burleigh

Oneida County Historical Society,
300 Elizabeth St., Utica, N.Y.

Dear sirs:

I wish to avail myself of the services of someone in your Society to undertake a search of the 1800 census records of your County, for which I shall gladly compensate at the prevailing rates. If such a person is available, I wish the following:

The family, or children, of James and Anna Randolph, of Argyle Town, Washington County (appearing in 1790 census), removed to Oneida County before 1800. Here James' son married Olive Powell. Their children, James (born 1799), Ada (born 1801), William and Maria (born 1811) were born. Family history states that they were born three miles from Rome.

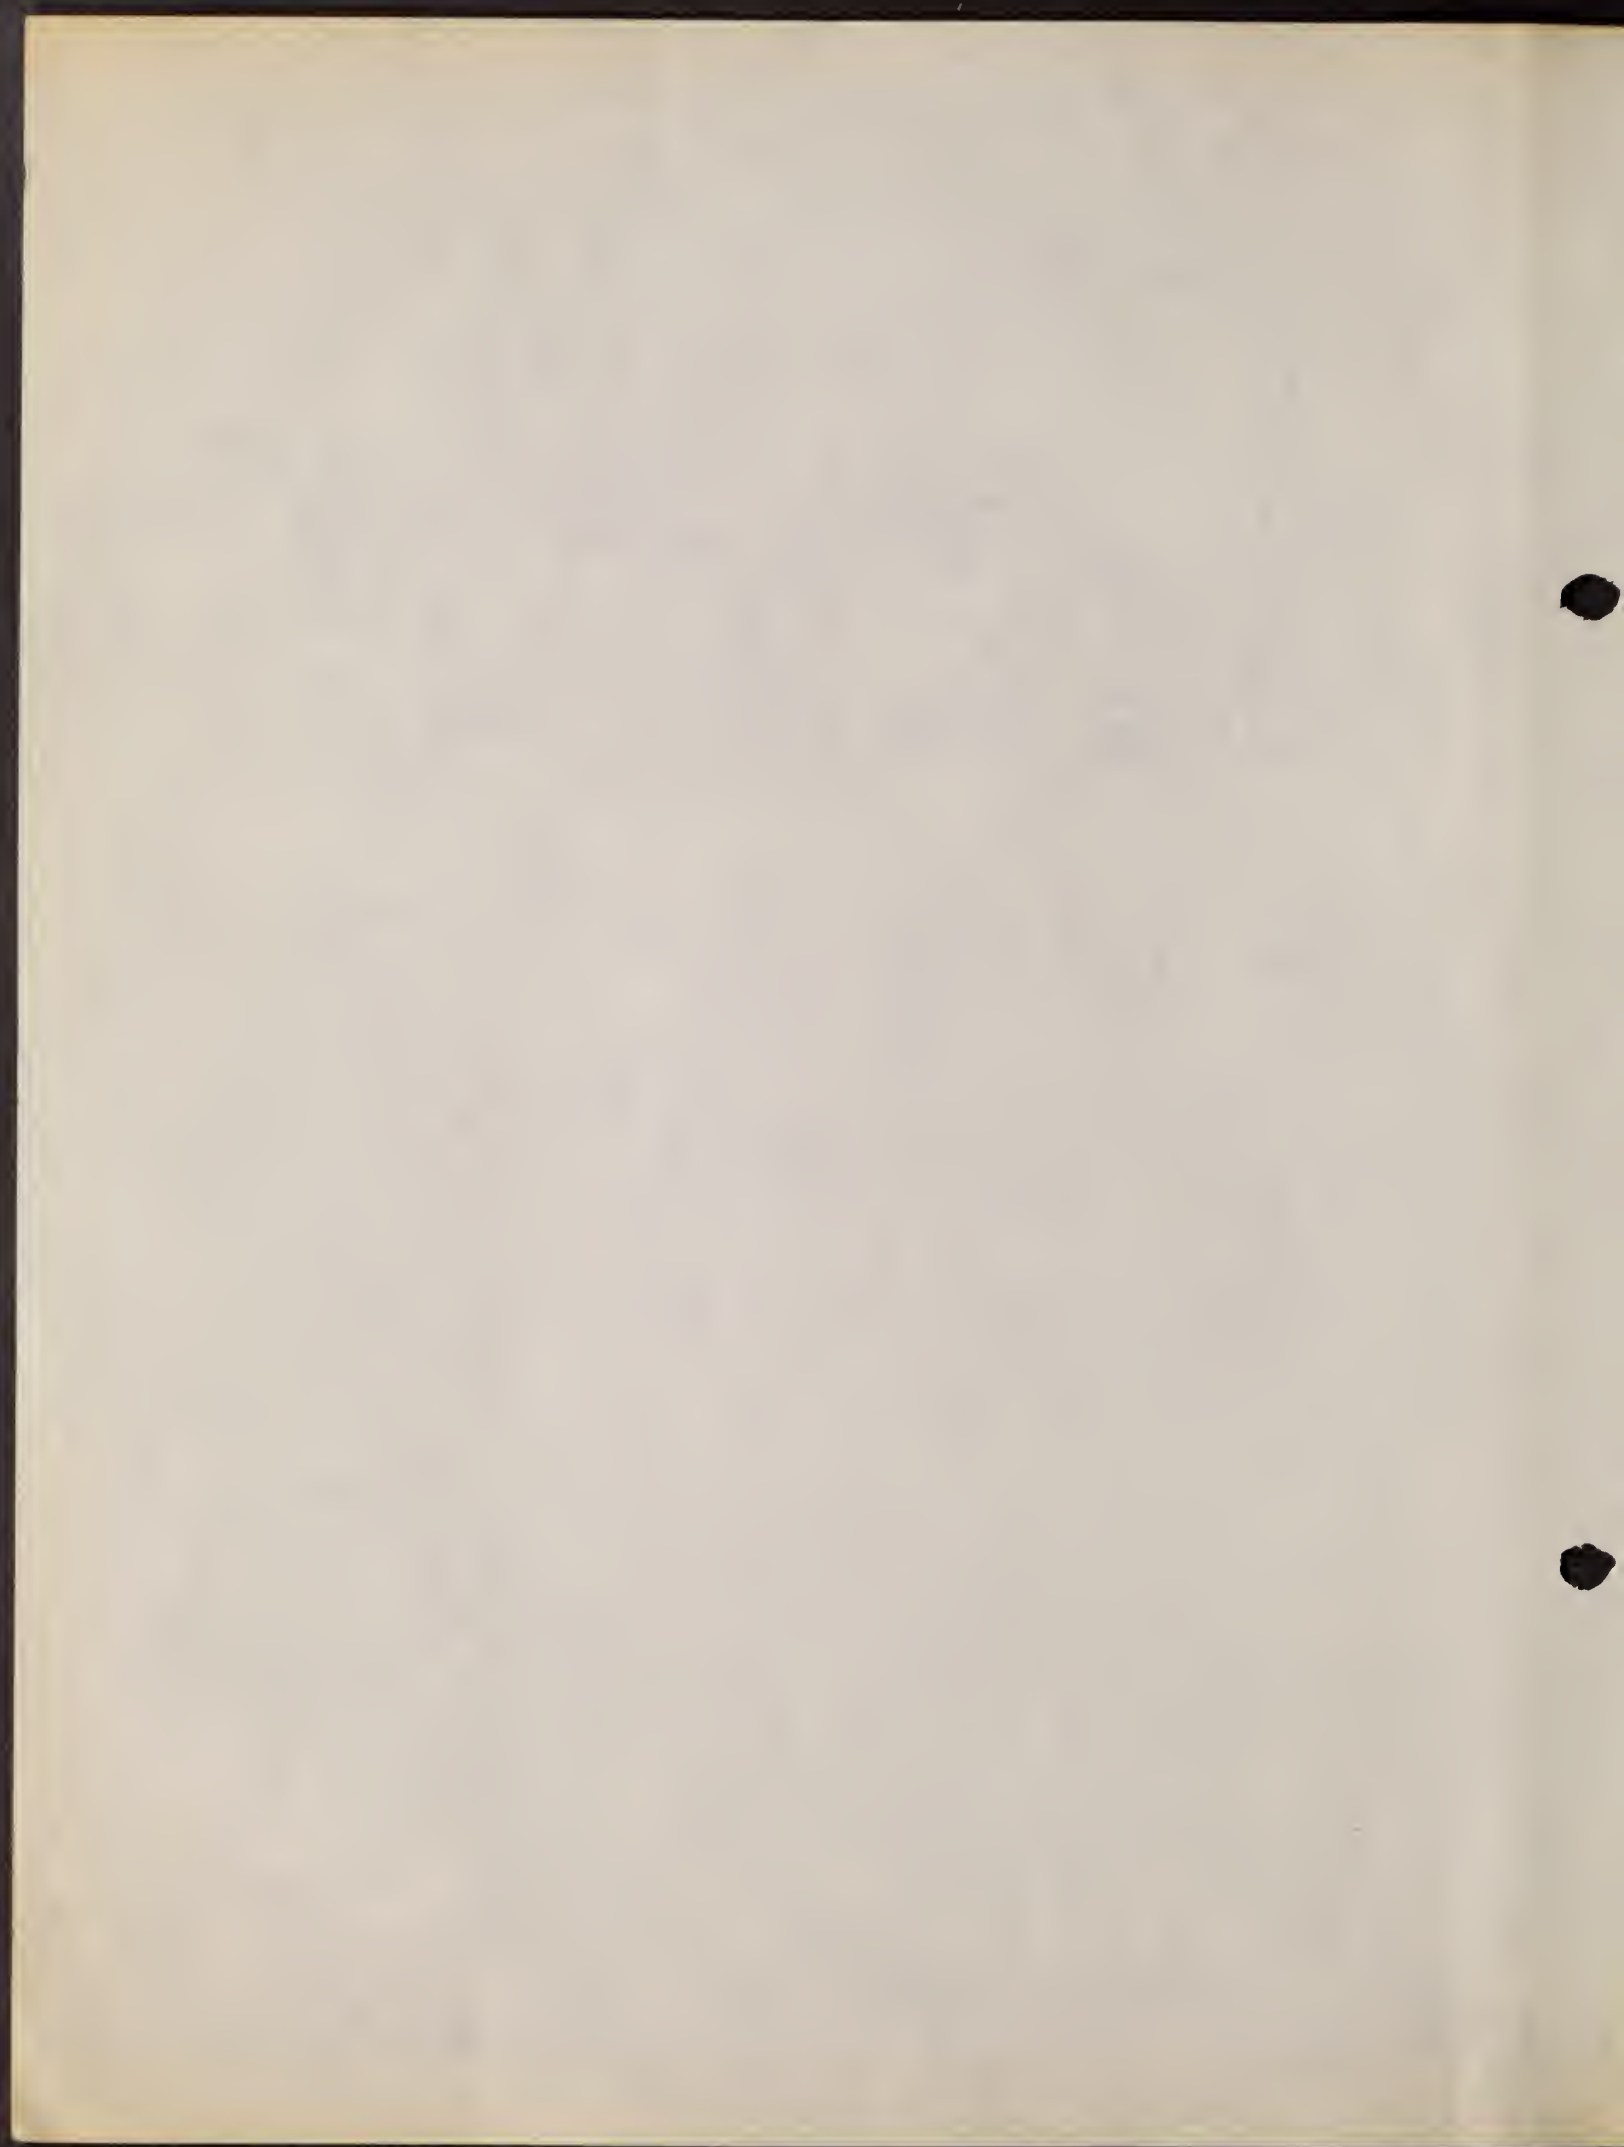

One daughter of James, Hannah, married Abraham Fraser about 1804-5, presumably in the same district.

Relatives of these families lived in, or near, Taberg as late as 1838-9.

Any assistance you may be able to give in aiding in this search will be appreciated.

I am enclosing stamped envelope for reply.

Yours sincerely,

Randolph of Argyll Town
Washington Co.

First authentic record of this family is the Census of 1790 for Argyll Town, Washington County, New York.

James Randolph 2 adult males, 3 males under 16 yrs, 4 females.

This might mean James with father or adult son, as well as 3 sons, wife and 3 daughters

Mrs. F. Randal Liveray claims that James Randolph's name appears in 1800 Census of Argyll Town.

Argyll Town was settled by a party of Scots Immigrants led by Capt. Langhlin Campbell in 1738-40. James Randolph may have been of this party, although to date I have not found mention of a Randolph. It is more possible that Randolph was a tenant on lands there, borne out by failure to find him owning lands after 1784.

The first definite information regarding his children is found in Langhorne's Parish Register of St. John's Church, Bath. It gives a clue to three daughters:

- I. Hannah Randolph, wife of Abraham Fraser baptised with her two sisters on Feb. 16, 1806, daughter of James and Anna Randolph. Her children include
1. David baptised 18 Jan. 1806; buried 24 Jan 1806
 2. Cyrus Lockwood, baptised in Ernesttown 5 July 1807 died 30 July 1829, buried in Fellows Cem. Ernesttown.
 3. Margaret Ann, baptised in Ernesttown 24 Feb. 1811 ~~7th~~ died May 13, 1831, aged 19 yrs. 5 months.

Fellows Cemetery contains plot which, in addition to marking graves of Cyrus and Margaret Ann, gives the following burials which evidently belong to this family

4. Isaac Fraser, son of — —, died 3 Jan 1829, aged 28 years
5. James Fraser, died 26 Jan 1849, aged 49 years
6. Donald K. Fraser, died Marysville, California May (or July?)? 5, 1867.

In 1801 ~~a~~ Abraham Fraser, son of Daniel, U.E., is listed as of Fredericksburgh. In a list of Daniel's Children in Lenox & Addington Historical Society

Handwritten title at the top of the page, possibly a chapter or section heading.

 Abraham's name is not in Crown Grants in Ennestown.
 An Abraham Fraser in 1865 owned lot 37 Conc 3. In 1878 he owned 75 acres in lot 38 3d Concession. George, Catherine and James Fraser owned adjacent plots in lots 37, 38 and 39

These are likely Frasers on these lots today.

If the James and Isaac Fraser buried in Abraham Fraser plot, Fellows Cemetery, are his sons, it would appear that he married Hannah Randolph before 1800.
 This must have occurred elsewhere than Bath, most likely in U.S., either in Argyle Town or in the neighborhood of Rome, N.Y., where other children of James Randolph settled.

Abraham and Hannah likely removed to Ennestown in 1805, or before.

II Sarah Anne Randolph was baptised in Bath St John's church with her sisters, Hannah and Apphia Feb 16, 1806.
 Wm. Johnston family record reveals that she was born at North (Hudson) River Feb. 14, 1784. So, she was 22 years of age when baptised.

About 1807 she married William Johnston, where is not known, but possibly at North River or Rome N.Y.

Her children, taken from the Johnston family record

1. James Edward Jewel born at Bath 22 July 1808 baptised at Bath 21 July 1809.

2 Ann (baptised Anne Catharine) born 27 Feb 1810 (Baptismal record reads 28 Feb 1809); buried killed by a falling tree about 1811 (his youngest daughter was born April 11, 1811 (Cyrus Bulleigh family bible)). Some reports have the place of his death in Ernestown Township, on Stanley Sigsworth Farm (Portland Township Conc 6, lot 8 or 9) and in U.S. before his family came to Canada. Mrs. Lillian Randolph, whose husband was a great-grandson of this man, writes: "my husband's great grandmother went to Canada with her two sons, William and James, after her husband's death or was killed. He was, I understand a soldier in the American Revolution, living at the time in Vermont." (He may have been old enough to have been a soldier in 1783, but I suspect that this was his father).

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario.

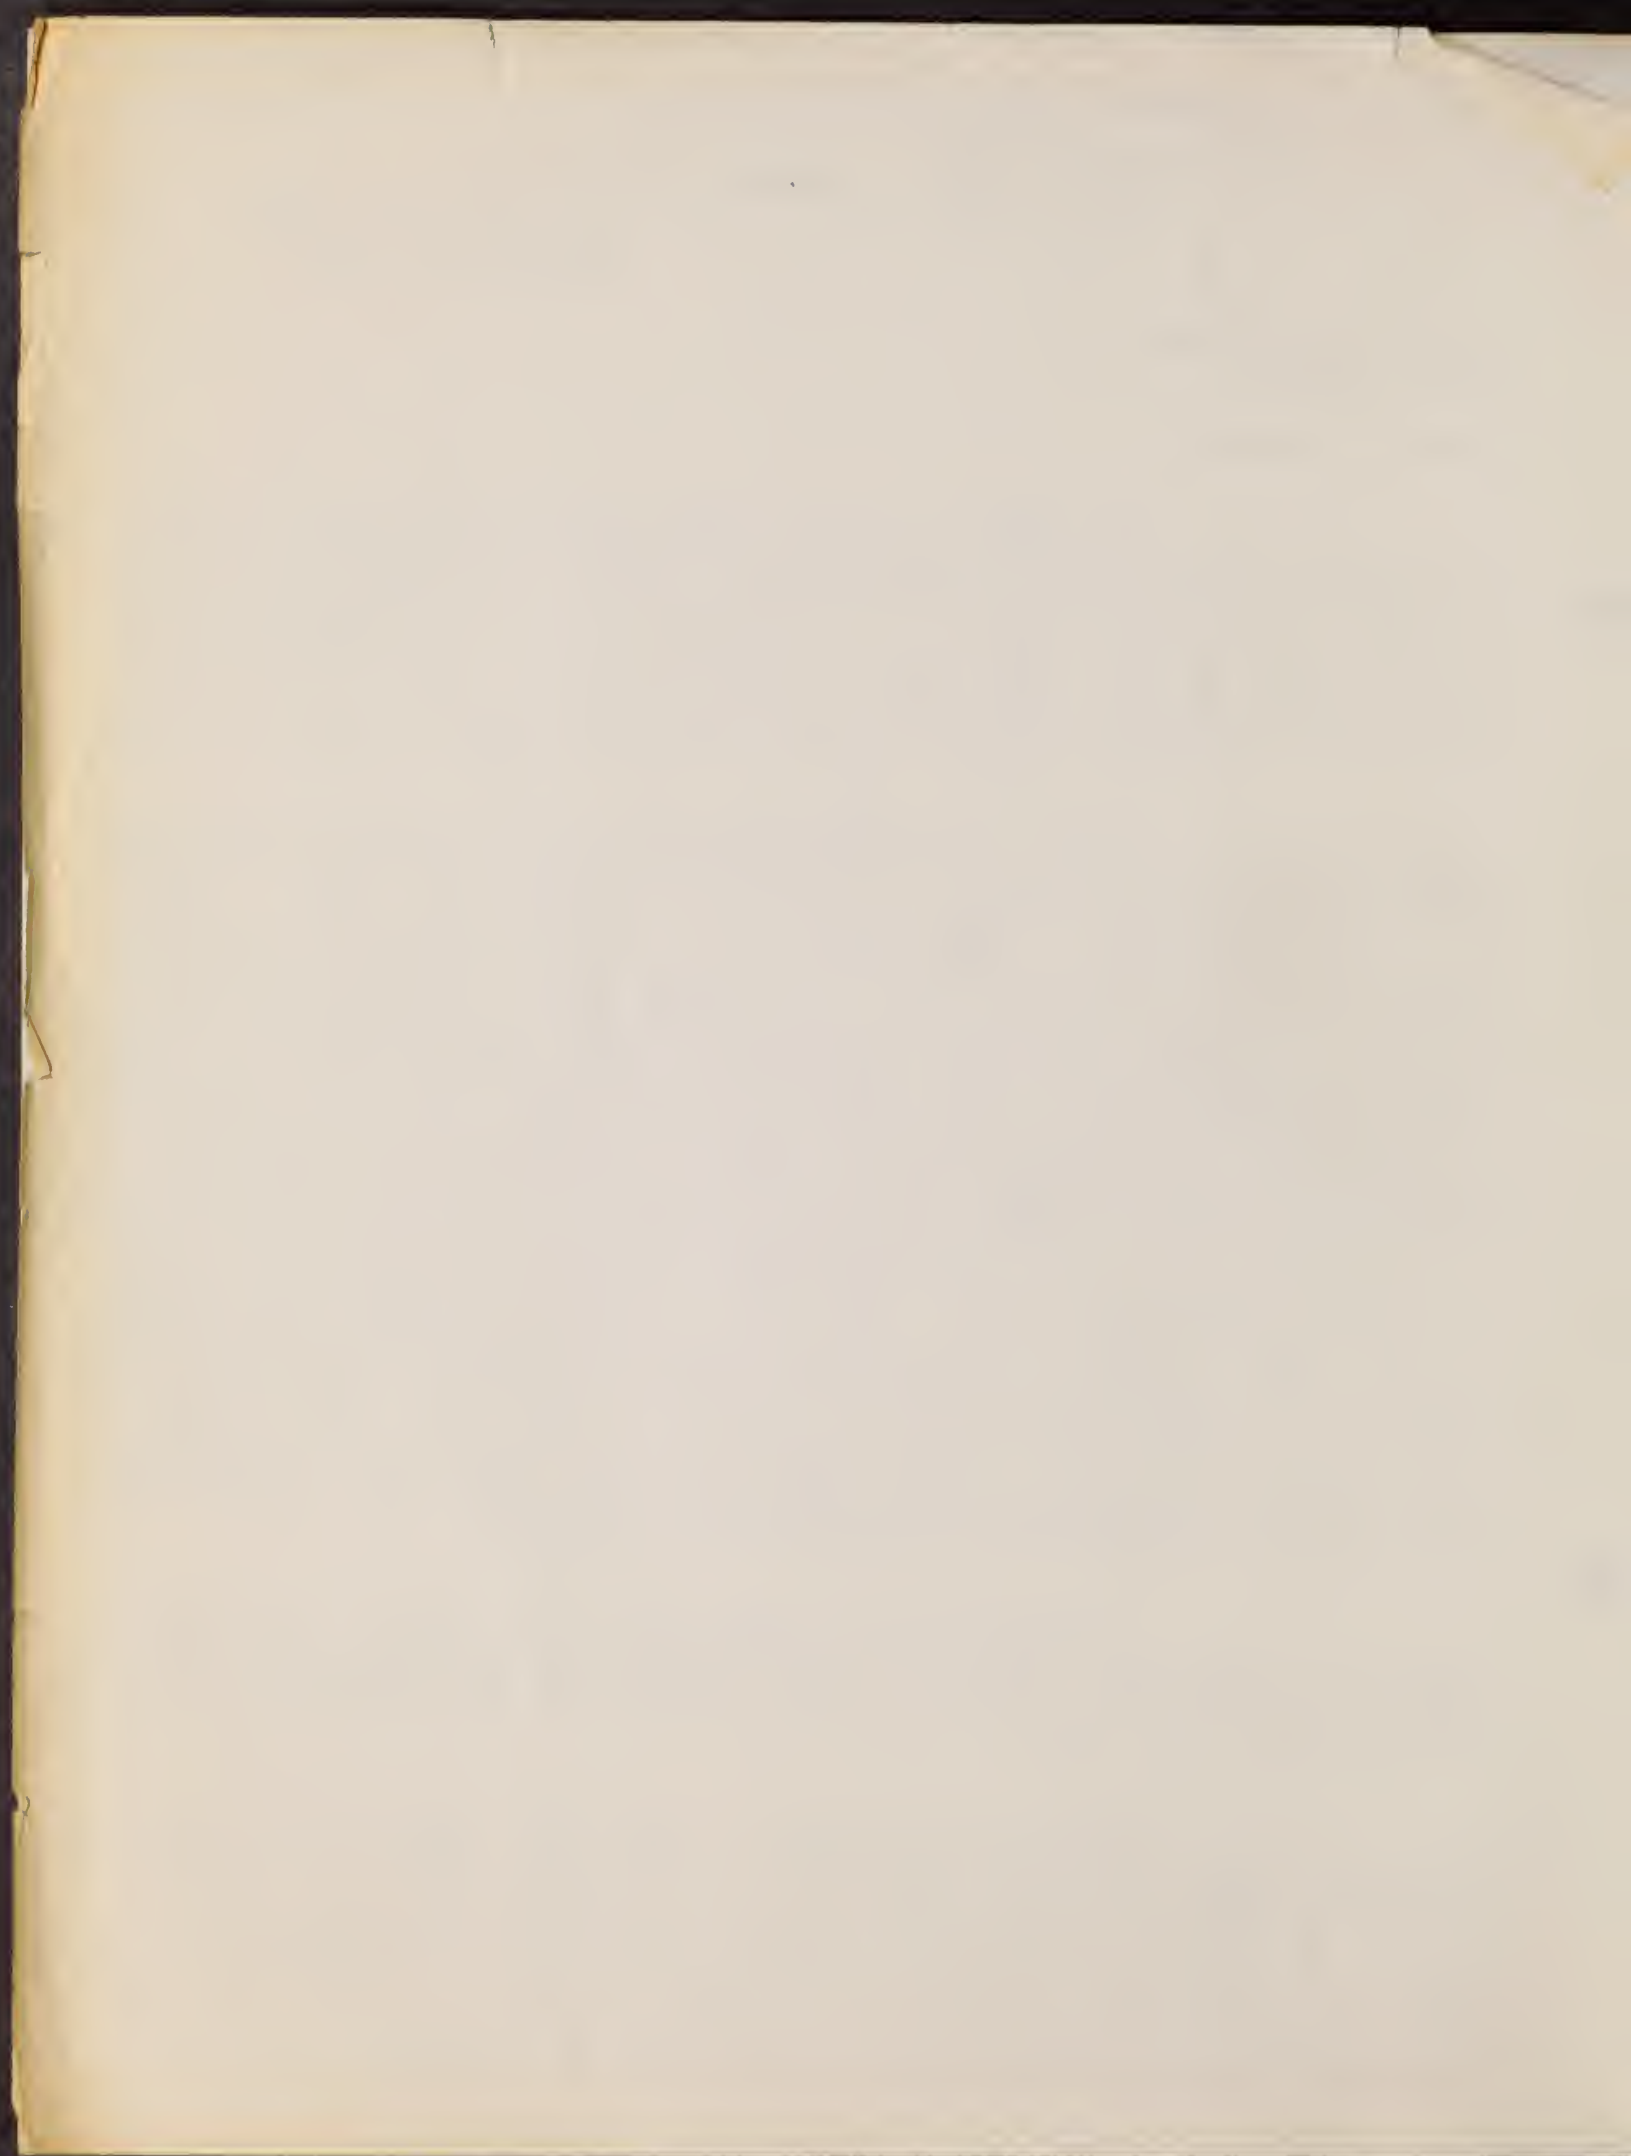

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

You will no doubt be just as surprised to hear from me as you were to hear from my mother, Mrs. Ida Millar, Burk's Falls, Ont. I am greatly interested in finding out more about my family history on the Taylor side of the family. A great-niece of mother's is compiling a family tree and she wrote to me a couple of years ago asking for as much information as I could find out from mother. She later sent me a copy of the information she had been able to collect up to that time, considerable of which was the details I had been able to get from mother.

It is very interesting to find out that you are a distant cousin of mine. I remember years ago when mother received your first letter back in 1940 but I had not remembered that there was any relationship. I just thought your father or grandfather knew or knew of my great-grandfather Dr. Henry Taylor. As an explanation of how mother came to write to you this winter is a rather long story but I shall try to make it brief. Eight years this coming March my father was killed in a bush accident and as it was still winter time and much snow and mother could not remain alone on the farm as it was half a mile to the nearest neighbour and five miles from town (Burk's Falls), the house was closed up and mother went to stay with an aunt. In September of that year - 1956 we bought a home for mother about 2½ miles north of town and half a mile from where my older brother James lives and she has lived there ever since. We moved the most of the household effects out from home at that time but mother has since sold the farm and the remaining furnishings and effects have remained in the house out home until Thanksgiving week-end of this past fall and we moved what remaining things we wanted and could bring in to mother's and amongst the various boxes etc. your letter of 1940 came to light when mother was sorting through the things after I came back to the city. She has mentioned many times down through the years that she wished she could find the letter and again contact you. She could not remember either your name or address.

I have been in Toronto since the fall of 1937, only being home brief intervals since on holidays etc. I work at the The T. Eaton Life Assurance Company. I have worked with Eatons for the past 19 years not all that time in the Life Assurance Office having only changed to there last May.

Mother is 83 years old and still quite spry and her memory is pretty ke-en as far as away in the past. Her family moved back to Burk's Falls from the States 75 years ago last fall. Her grandfather Dr. Henry Taylor and her uncle William Taylor and her father's sister Mrs. Abram Snyder, whom mother speaks of as Aunt Margot all lived near Burk's Falls when mother's parents moved back to Burk's Falls 75 years ago. They had lived near to Dr. Taylor etc several years before as mother's older sister Lydia Ann was born at Midlothian, a rural community about 3 or 10 miles west of Burk's Falls. It is still known as Midlothian. It is in the Midlothian cemetery where Dr. Taylor is ~~buried~~ buried. We visited it this past summer and I took down as much information as I could decipher on the tomb stones of several of the relations buried there. However I have misplaced my notes, I think I may have left them up at mother's and when I was home at Christmas I couldn't find them. However as soon as I find them I will make a copy and send it to you.

Mother was the youngest in her family and she is the only remaining member living. Her brother and two older sisters moved out west somewhere around 1903 to 1910. Aunt Maggie the sister next ~~oxx~~ to mother died around 1914 and Uncle Cyrus died in March 1943 and Aunt Lydia died in 1951.

Mother still has one first cousin, George Taylor living in Orillia, Ont. He was 90 years old in December. He lives with his son Harold Taylor at 57 Peter St. South, Orillia, Ont.

Mother knows very little about her grandmother Taylor, Dr. Taylor's wife only that she was supposed to have died at Midlothian and as far as mother knows she died some here around 1876-1873.

There are many questions I would like to ask you regarding what details you know about the family. Mother says she has recollection of something about some of the early families being afraid of Indians just where they were living at that time I have no idea. Mother always tells that her grandmother Taylor was of Pennsylvania-Dutch background. Her name or where she came from seems to be unknown.

Since hearing from you mother has written to another cousin a niece of George Taylor and she says she thinks her greatgrand-mother Mrs. Henry Taylor's maiden name may have been Randolph as her grand-mother's father William Taylor, George's father was William Randolph Taylor

I would be most interested in getting a copy of the write up of Dr. Henry Taylor that you spoke of in your letter.

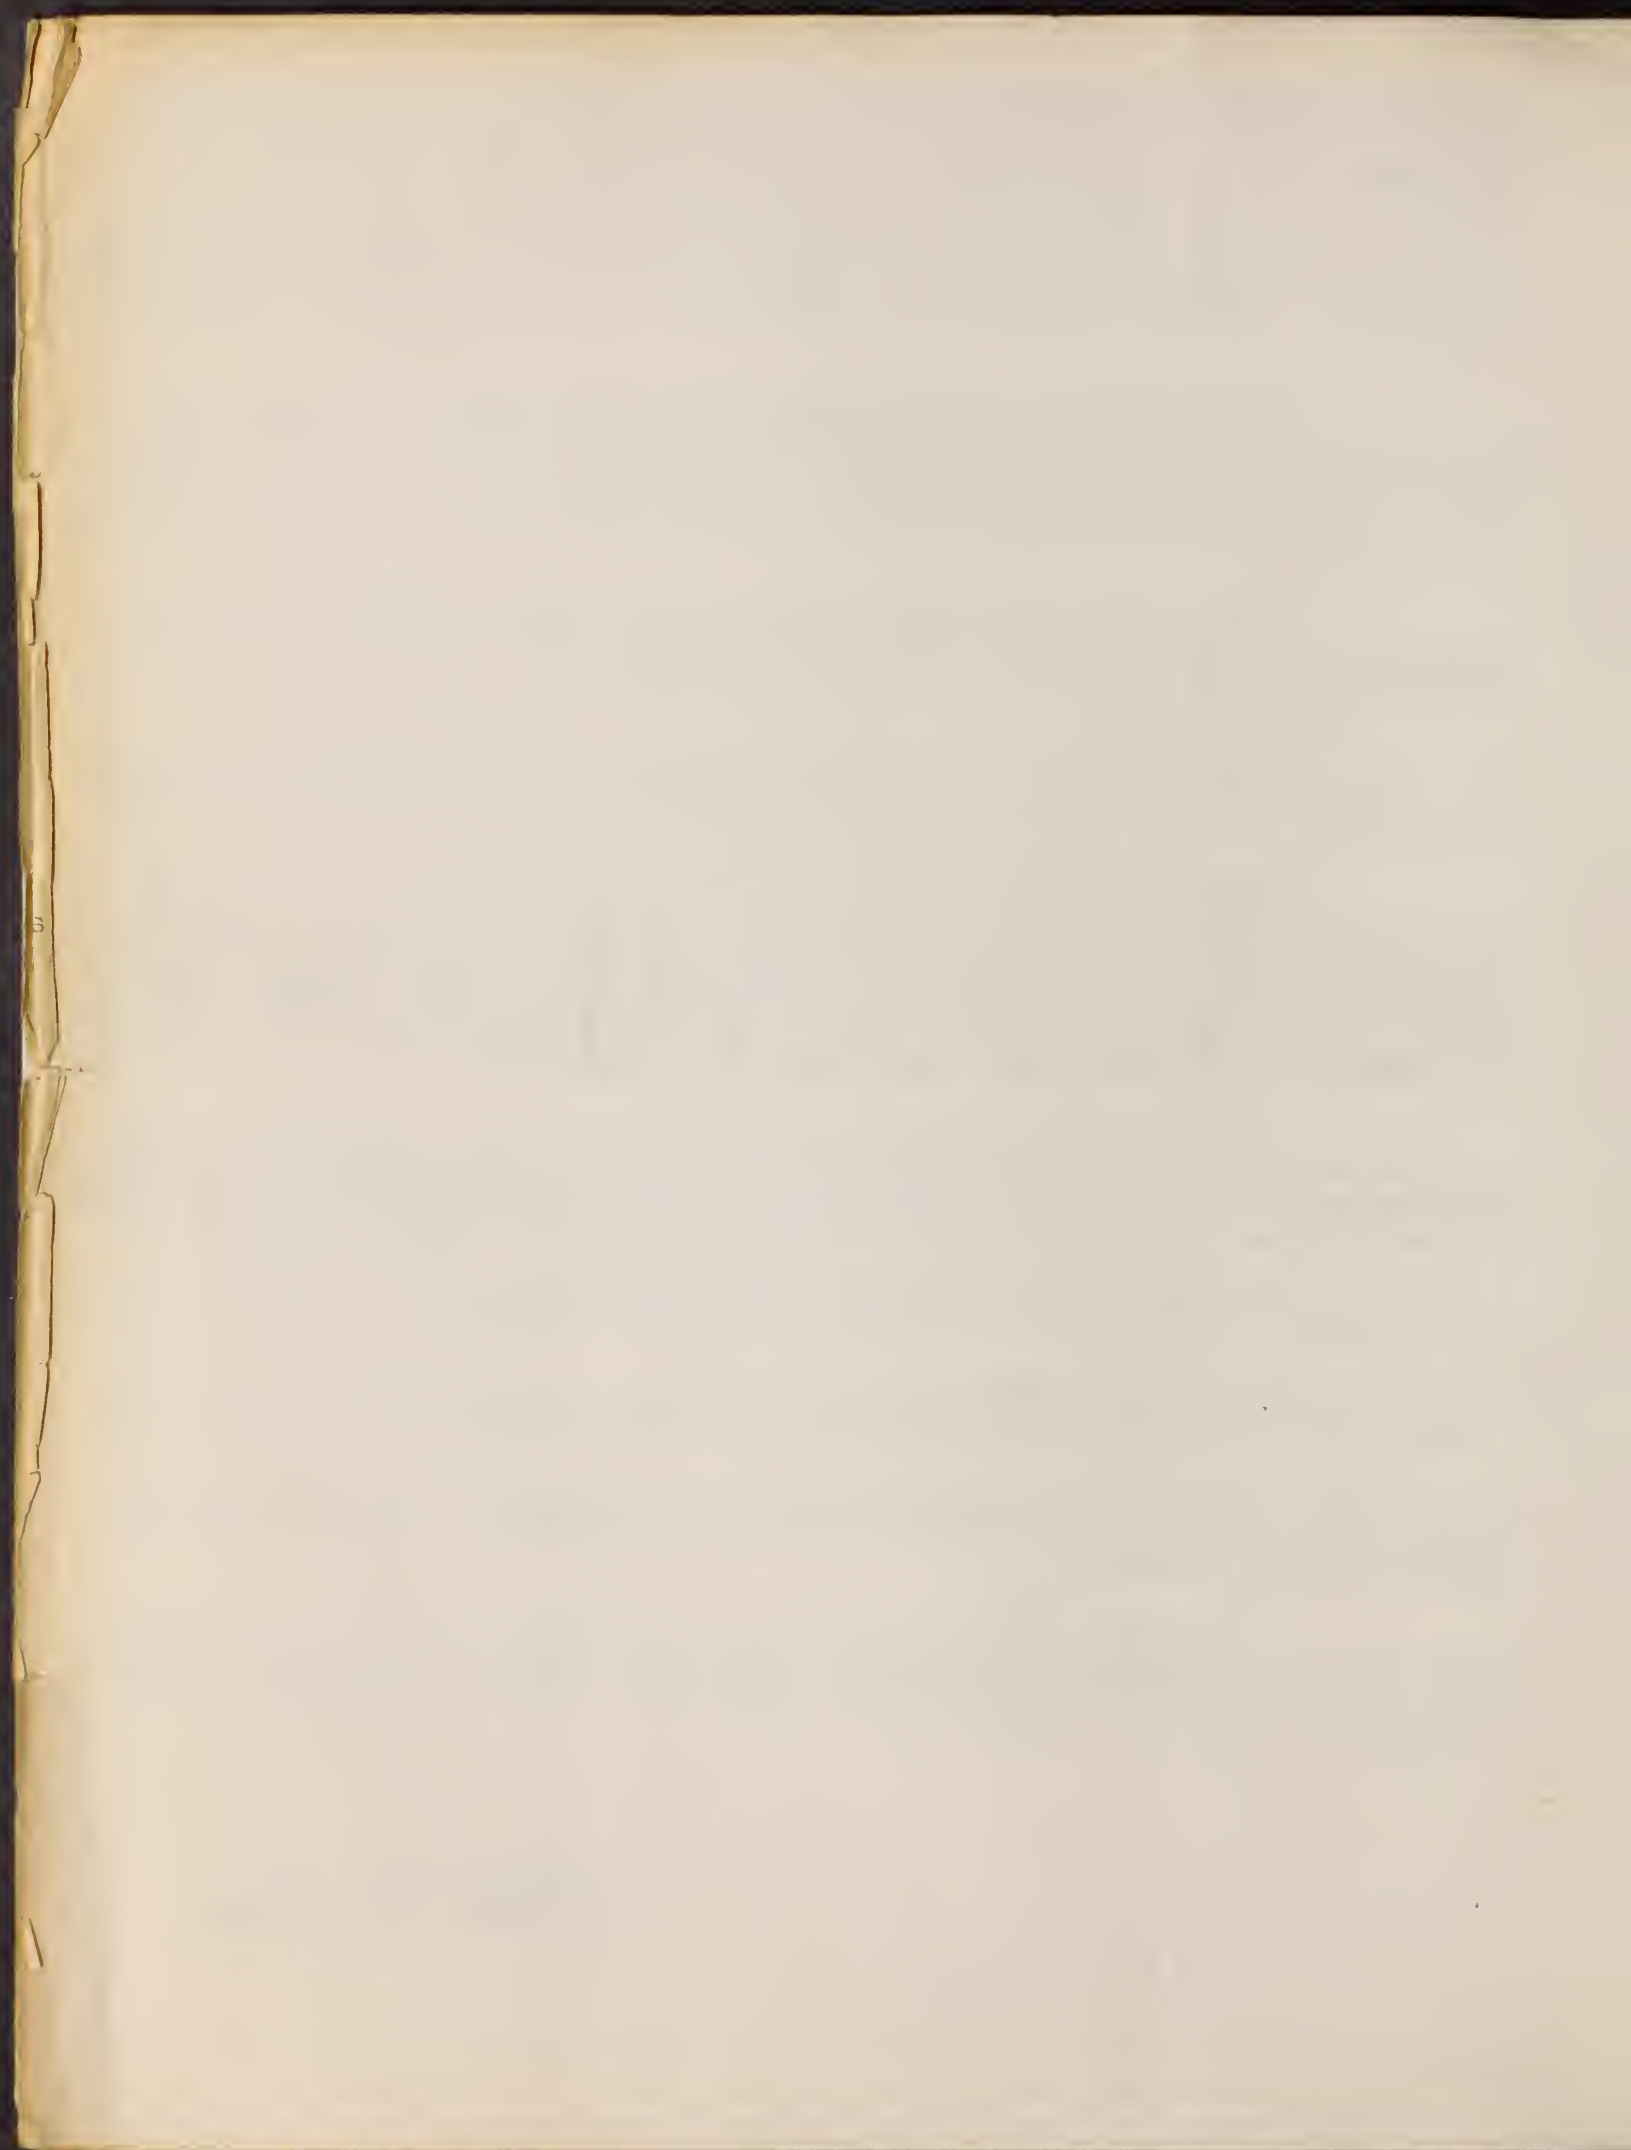

If there is ~~any~~ more questions you would like to ask me and I can be of any help in answering them I shall be happy to do so.

My cousin Merle who is doing this work on writing up a family tree will be most happy to receive any further details that you may be able to supply.

This has become quite a lengthy letter. I trust it contains some notes of interest to you and I shall be looking forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience and will send any further information I can find out.

Yours very sincerely your cousin

Ruth Millar

RANDOLPH-POWELL.

I have nothing on these names. I know Argyle, Washington Co., N.Y. was settled by Scottish emigrants.

The Manuscript Room at the N.Y. State Library, Washington Ave., Albany, N.Y. has a good deal of material on Washington County, but I know of no one there, aside from the Librarians looking up a few Problems, to search these papers.

New York Towns kept no Vital Records until 1880, but all records copied by Patriotic Societies (D.A.B., S.A.R., Colonial Dames, etc.) are on file there; also original and photostatic copies of early church records. The Dutch churches and Quakers kept wonderful records. The problem on those is that the Dutch Church records are not indexed; the records in Dutch with Christian names in Latin (usually). So it means just slogging through them, page by page. But these records do not merely cover the Dutch and Quakers, but a lot of people in the area served by the Church. In the case of the Dutch--Baptisms, Marriages, etc.

Yes, Argyle, Washington County, New York, was settled by Scottish Immigrants. It was named for the Duke of Argyle--Patent granted May 21, 1764; Town founded 1786. Greenwich taken off in 1803; Fort Edward in 1818.

Several years ago I did a lot of work for Dr. Selim MacArthur--the famous Chicago Surgeon, now retired--on his MacArthurs.

He sent me "The History of the Somanauk United Presbyterian Church," published in 1928, by Jennie M. Patten & Andrew Graham. This lists passengers from Islay (Scotland) with Capt. Laughlin Campbell, bound for New York, July 1738. (Of course we only copied the MacArthurs). Lists of Passengers brought from Scotland by Capt. Laughlin Campbell 1738-40, list probably prepared in 1763--etc. All these passengers settled at Argyle, N.Y., and of course there may be information about your Randolphs in these.

I do not know where this Somanauk Church record is located. But it is signed (the copy) by Miss Elizabeth Horton, Genealogist, 12 Grove Street, Middletown, Conn. If you are interested, you could try to contact Miss Horton. I also do not have Miss Patten's address, but perhaps could that from Dr. MacArthur. A note at the end states that Miss Patten has over 2000 Gravestone Inscriptions from Washington County, N.Y.

Dr. MacArthur thinks there is some connection between this Argyle Patent and the Robert Livingston Grant around Hudson, N.Y. The Duke of Argyle was hereditary head of the MacArthur Clan, most of whom lived around Glennochie, Argyleshire--so your Randolphs may have come from the same Scotch area.

I find a Note of "Passenger List Port Greenock June 19 1775, Brigantine "Commerce," Perthshire to New York, and think we also found other ships lists from Scotland--but do not seem to find the notes on those.

[The text on this page is extremely faint and illegible. It appears to be a multi-paragraph document, possibly a letter or a report, with several lines of text visible across the page. The content cannot be transcribed accurately.]

FITZ-RANDOLPH FAMILY.

The first Fitz-Randolph was Edward, and the date of his arrival, though not definitely known, was very early in the history of Massachusetts Bay Colony; certainly soon after the disembarkation of the "Mayflower" passengers at Plymouth Rock, in 1620.

He was born about 1615, and as a lad, accompanied his mother, a widow, to New England--about the year 1634: possibly as early as 1630.

Mr. H. C. Burleigh
Bath, Ontario, Canada

Dear Mr. Burleigh:

Mrs. Harry S. F. Randolph forwarded your letter of July 3rd to me, in the hopes I could cast some light on your great-grandmother's antecedents. With Mrs. Louise Aymar Christian I edited a genealogy of the "FITZ RANDOLPH FAMILY" (which, by the way, can be obtained from the New Jersey Historical Society, 230 Broadway, Newark 4, New Jersey, with a check for $7.50 made out to Louise Aymar Christian); but I am sorry to say there is no mention of your line in it. The James (of Argyle, Washington Co. N. Y.) of whom you speak MIGHT HAVE BEEN 1) JAMES 4 (John 3, John 2, Edward 1) FITZ RANDOLPH, who was born Nov. 24, 1721 in N. J., and of whom we have no further record: or

2) JAMES 4, (Jonathan 3, Joseph 2) F. R., b. Sept. 26, 1725. No further record: or

3) JAMES 5 (Jonathan 4, Jonathan 3, Joseph 2), who mar. in Piscataway, N. J., license dated April 21, 1765, Mary Moore, and of whom nothing more is known.

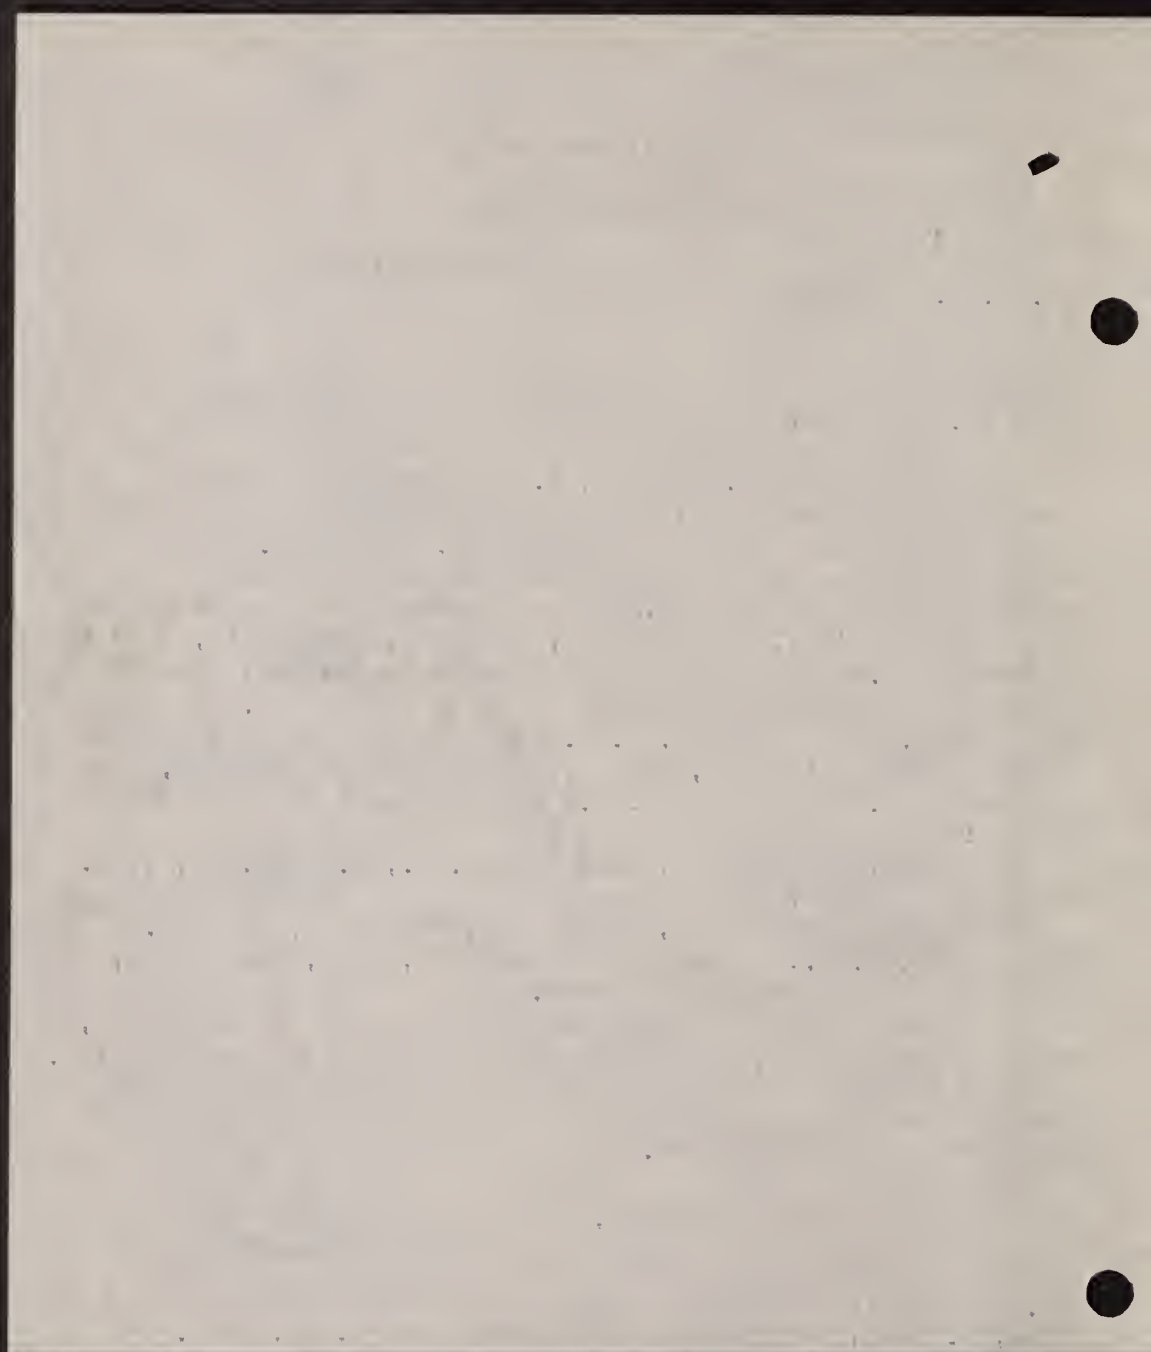

The index of our book shows no Randolph with the name Aphia, and no Olive Powell, and no Anne who married a William Johnston.

I am terribly sorry not to be able to connect you with the family; but if you ever get more information, I should be delighted to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Howard S. F. Randolph

PS. William (or John) must have been older than his sister Anne, b. 1784, as his wife Olive Powell was b. ab. 1770.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

The enclosed items concerning the Randell-Randolph family were evidently "dug up" when searching for information for Mrs. J. F. B. Livesay, Clarkson, Ont., and they may be of some interest to you. If you wish further data on this family, I suggest you get in touch with Mrs. Livesay who has made a very thorough search on this family.

Yours sincerely,

Abraham Randal received the patent for lot 4 in the 11th concession of the township of Yonge.

There was a Joseph Randolph who owned the west half of lot 12 in the 6th concession, township of Elizabethtown, prior to the war of 1812-14. Being a disaffected person, his land was seized by the Government.

Moses Randall, or Randolph, was one of those who opened a road through the centre of the townships of Leeds, Lansdowne and Pittsburg, as far as Kingston, a distance of 31 miles, in the autumn of 1798.

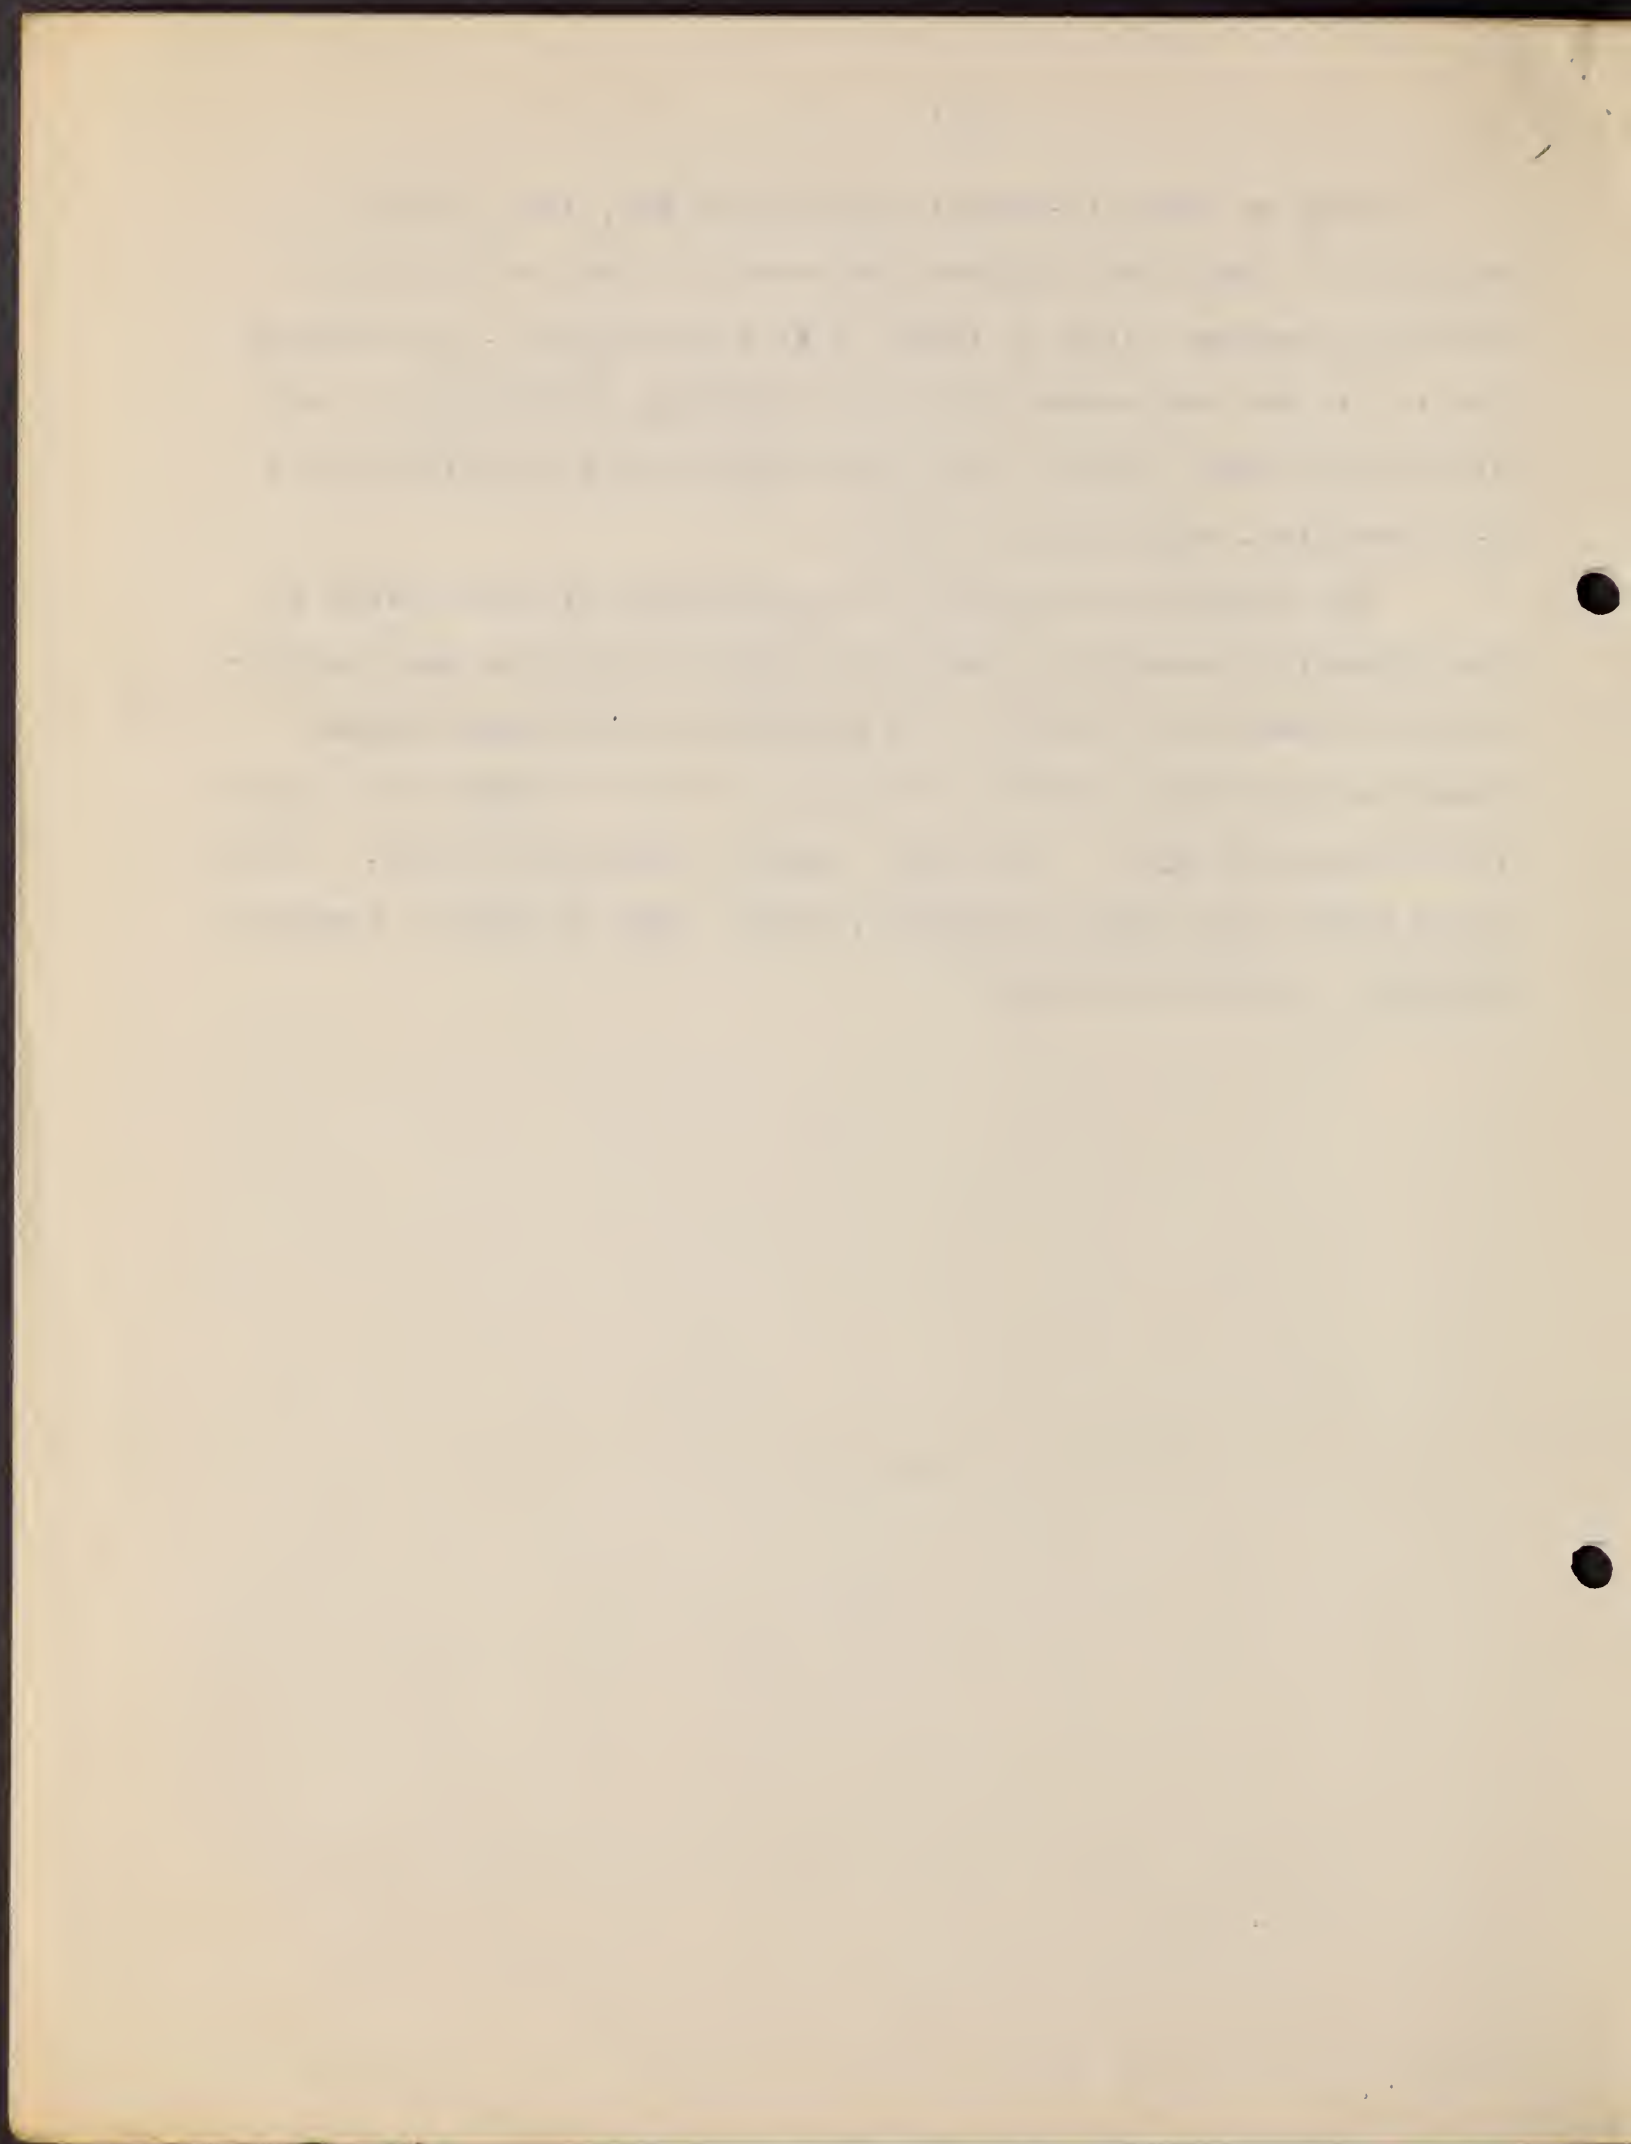

There was a Samuel Randolph living in Elizabethtown in 1827 whose wife, Lydia, was a daughter of John Myers, U.E., also of Elizabethtown.

Benjamin Randolph, of Yonge, is mentioned in the U.E. list with the following remarks: "A settler in 1795. O(liver) Everts. --If Ranolds, a soldier R(oyal) R(egiment) N(ew) Y(ork). M(uster) Roll," The latter half of the remarks refers to Benjamin Reynolds, U.E., of Etobicoke Township, who had served as a soldier in the King's Royal Regiment of New York. On January 21st, 1824, the Inspector General of Upper Canada, the Hon. J. Baby, sent to the Executive Council a "List of Names on the U.E. List which ~~fer~~ from remarks affixed to such names are supposed to be not entitled to that privilege." Amongst these names was that of Benjamin Randolph, of Yonge Township, with the remark: "Settler 1795 O.E." His name was ordered suspended from the List. Plainly he was not a U.E. Loyalist, though, through some oversight, his name was left on the U.E. List.

Under an Order-in-Council dated 26th May, 1801, Moses Randolph of Yonge, was allowed 200 acres of laand as the son of Benjamin Randolph, also of Yonge, a ~~M~~. U.E. Loyalist. He located lot 12 in the 5th concession of the township of Kitley. It was discovered later, however, that his father was not entitled as a U.E. Loyalist, being only a settler.

The following certificate was submitted by James Finch to the Executive Council to prove his right to lot 22 in the 7th concession township of Kitley: "We do hereby Certify that James Finch was the first settler in Kitley and has frequented our houses five years next April and ~~have~~ behaved Sober and honest. Given under hands this 13th of November, 1799. Town of Young. Benjamin Randolph. Abraham Randolph.

When old Granny Randolph (Olive Powell) died they lived on N.W. corner of their lot in a log house (Randolph's) just past Waller's gate. She was then staying with Will Randolph's widow (nee Jackson). The funeral (by sleigh in winter or spring) was held when timber was on the ground for construction of the new school beside the house. Father (J.W.B.) went to this school when he was 7 years of age (must have been six or just turned 7 when funeral took place), i.e. 1863.

If you want further research done on this family, I suggest you write directly to a professional genealogist, Mrs. G. Harry Swancott, 11 Greenwood Court, Utica, N. Y.

We endeavor to answer those queries which require only a reasonable amount of time, but we are not able to answer inquiries involving extended research and those concerned with families not from Oneida County. If a personal visit to the Library is possible, our staff will be glad to make pertinent data available. Otherwise, we recommend that further research on your problem be referred to a professional genealogist. Names and addresses of reliable research workers can be furnished on request.

Yours very truly,

Randolph.

Three miles from Rome N.Y.

Ada Randolph born 1800 ~~either in Catskill~~ ~~Mountains, N.Y. State or in Canada.~~ Was the daughter of ^{Jno} Wm Randolph whose wife was perhaps ^{Olivia} Johnson ~~or a maid(?)~~ She had brothers Wm & James, and sisters Mary. Ada was ^{not} apparently the oldest in the family for Mary ^{James born 179} was not born until 1830. According to W.B. & F.M. she must have been born in Catskill Mts for she told of life there - eagles & winter cutting of wood. So she could not have come to Canada until she was at least six or seven. This would point to emigration about 1806 or later - certainly not later than 1812. Some time before 1812 she went to stay with Bill
Johnson who was her uncle (How did this occur?)
When Johnson escaped to U.S. his family including Ada followed. They lived at Sachett's Harbor during the War 1812-14 at least Ada was there during the attack by Geo in 1813.
Ada was again in Kingston about 1816 for she (according to F.M.) married Cyrus Burling at the age of sixteen. This would be 1816 or 17. The family settled in Portland Township about 1826 and it is plausible that Cyrus & wife lived at Storms Corners from 1816 to 1826.

W. Bauligh's great grandmother Randolph (is her name Moss? or Johnson?) was 95 when she died. She was living with Will Randolph's widow (a Maria

Jackson who said that old people should be knocked in the head) on farm lot 11 Conc 6 Portland. Pa went to funeral when he was about 5 yrs old (1862)

They lived on Jim Hail Place just across from Mary Wattams & little further on. She cut a new set of teeth before she died.

Fanny Myers - says - Will Randolph died from blood poisoning caused by cutting his hand while skinning a horse whose spotted hide he wanted to use in making a robe. Granmy (Ada's)

Bauligh was called in the night to make a poultice

When granny Randolph-Burleigh came to Canada there was only three log houses in Kingston one was in French village where Hay Market is now.

Estis? - Estage? - Cousins(?) of Granny Randolph
Aunt Wiltha made night cap for Granny Burleigh after she had died

Granny Rand-Bur. used to make feather beds by gathering feathers dropped by wild geese at Hay Bay
Used a slot-like scoop & throw feathers into wagon box

Randolph.

The Massacre of the Randolphs must have been in the American Revolution? It is hard to imagine such a massacre occurring so near New York about 1800-12.

PIRATE OF THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.

by

John Northman
(W. J. Wraith)

(As published serially in the Watertown Daily Times)

November 28, 1838.

Bill Johnston was taken prisoner, and, although freed on one count, was retained on another. During the night he escaped from sleeping guards at Auburn. ($200 reward).

On Dec. 8 two deputies, having heard that Johnston had been seen near Salina. . . A citizen gave a clue.

"At noon on the tenth, Captain Vaughan set out alone, driving a light sleigh, on a forty-six mile trip. His destination was a house in the woods, occupied by relatives of Bill Johnson, ten miles from Rome and seven miles north of New London. At nine o'clock that evening he walked into the house--and found his man, just preparing to go to bed. . . ."

"They started at once, travelled all night, and arrived in Salina at six o'clock next morning" and from thence to Syracuse.

My note.

Ten miles from Rome and seven miles north of New London would be in the neighborhood of Taberg. Which information is a definite clue to location of the home of Randolphs between 1790 and 1838. This is particularly interesting, seeing that Ada Randolph's grandchildren state that she was born three miles from Rome, N.Y. The family bible give her birth date as July 3, 1801.
